MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Weekly Report of the Office of Training
1 June 19671. Career Trainee Distribution

The February class plus a few military returnees and hold-overs from the previous class gives us a total of 49 CTs for the Directorate-oriented second phase of training. On the basis of evaluations and discussions with Directorate representatives and with the Trainees, the group appears to divide as follows: 61 for Clandestine Services, 15 for the Directorate of Intelligence, and 23 for Support Services.

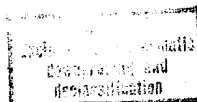

2. Support to Medical Services

25X1A9a [REDACTED] conducted a further series of metal detection tests at [REDACTED]
25X1A6a [REDACTED] Twenty-five students from the current [REDACTED]
25X1A9a Course participated. (While there, [REDACTED] gave a two-hour presentation to the students of the Operations Familiarization Course on "Medical Support to Operations" and was well received.)

3. DOD Quota Courses

The Fiscal Year 1968 quotas have been received from the Department of the Army. The number of spaces allotted by course will approximate the needs of the Agency. Once we have received Agency component requirements and allocate the quotas, we will tabulate costs involved for each office and forward them to the O/PPB so that they can unlock the funds for FY 68 and transfer them to the OTR budget. This procedure will not be necessary in FY 69 or later since OTR will then directly budget for all agreed-to quota courses.

4. Program Assisted Instruction for Operations Course

Program assisted instruction was used for the first time in the Operations Course [REDACTED] The materials concerned instruction in secret writing and the reaction of the TSD specialists who conducted the training was enthusiastic. Meanwhile, program assisted instruction for reports writing is now under development.

5. Non-Agency Briefings

During this reporting period the following non-Agency briefings were given: a) 120 Naval Intelligence Reserve Officers in Pittsburgh on the role of the Agency in the National Security Structure (the briefing was given in response to a request from the Domestic Contact Service, approved by the Assistant to the Director); b) [REDACTED] [REDACTED] on the U.S. Intelligence Community and the Agency's function in the production of finished intelligence; c) 40 AID employees, most of whom are being prepared for assignment in Vietnam, on the Agency's mission and functions; d) 15 new officers in USIA's Orientation on "The Communist Movement Today"; e) 28 officers at Fort Holabird on "Communist Activity in Latin America."
